Plaintiff

v.

Case ID. No. 1002011017

Juan C. Restrepo-Duque

Defendant

IN THE NATURE OF A WRIT OF ERROR

I am a person, a living human being. I am not the "case". The "case" is State v. Juan C. Restrepo-Duque ID. No. 1002011017 (State of Delaware).

I Claim All the Rights afforded to me by the Constitution of the United States of America.

Based on the Article I, Section 8, Clause 17 of the Constitution of the United States of America, and through the Book 1, Section 207, of The Uniform Commercial Code, I call upon all the Common Law Rights, and I further invoke the Book 1, Section 103, of The Uniform Commercial Code.

I also fully invoke the Right of/to Allocution which I have not waived at any time and will never be waived. I request that the Powers That Be act on to the effect that the "case" must be dismissed and the charges withdrawn and nullified.

In Support of all this, the following is True for the "case/trust" State v. Juan C. Restrepo-Duque ID. No. 1002011017 (State of Delaware):

The Judge was the Administrator of the "case". The Judge was the Person/Entity to whom the "case" was entrusted. The Trial Court was not fair and violated all of my Rights. The "case" was perpetrated by the Prosecutors acting on behalf of the State government.

I Claim my Rights, all of my Rights. I claim all my Rights as a person, as a human being, and as an individual residing within the confines of the government.

I do not, I have not, and I will not resign my Rights.

I explicitly state that I clearly-and-effectively claim all of my Rights as stated above and I also explicitly state that it is clear that I request that the "case/trust" State v. Juan C. Restrepo-Duque I.D. No. 1002011017. (State of Delaware) must be dismissed and the charges withdrawn and nullified.

The Case/Trust must be DISSOLVED.
